FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

THE MONTH OF KISLEV

Kislev is the ninth of the twelve months of the Jewish calendar.

Kislev is the month of Chanukah, the only holiday in the Jewish calendar which spans, and hence connects, two months. Chanukah begins on the 25th day of the month of Kislev and concludes in the month of Tevet (either on the 2nd or 3rd, depending on the number of days in Kislev)

The name Kislev derives from the Hebrew word kesel, which means either “security,” or “trust.” There are two states of trust—one active and one passive—both of which manifest in the month of Kislev, which in the human body correspond to the right and left kidneys, respectively. In Hebrew, the word for kidney is also kesel.

The miracle of Chanukah reflects the active trust of the Hasmoneans (the Maccabees) in G-d that drove them to stand up and fight against the Hellenistic Seleucid kingdom (and its culture). Kislev’s sense is sleep. Sleep too is connected with trust and reflects the passive trust that we all have that G-d’s Providence always watches over all.

Zodiac sign: Keshet (Sagittarius, the Bow)

The zodiac symbol of Kislev is the bow, which means both an archer’s bow and a rainbow. The latter relates clearly with the theme of Chanukah as the archer’s bow of the Maccabees. It symbolizes their active trust in G-d to fight against the Hellenistic culture that ruled the world at the time. Though the Hasmoneans themselves were members of the tribe of Levi and part of the priesthood, in the Bible, the art of archery and the bow are ascribed to the tribe of Benjamin in particular, the tribe of the month of Kislev (see 2 Chronicles 14:7).

Tribe: Benjamin

As mentioned earlier, the tribe of Benjamin is the one most gifted with the art of the bow. The Holy Temple in Jerusalem was built in the part of the Land of Israel belonging to Benjamin. Moses prophesied this in his blessing for Benjamin, “To Benjamin he [Moses] said, ‘[Benjamin is] the beloved of G-d, He [the Almighty] shall dwell trustfully over him; He hovers over him all the day, and between his shoulders He rests.’” Here we explicitly see that Benjamin symbolizes both trust and rest, the sense of the month of Kislev.

Of all the tribes of Israel, Benjamin was the only one born in the land of Israel. The land of Israel is the place where one most clearly experiences Divine providence. In the words of the Zohar, “There is no place vacant of Him.”

When Jacob blessed Benjamin before his passing, he likened him to a wolf. Based on this blessing, Jacob is symbolized by a wolf. The wolf, representing craving and gulping down food without chewing (wolfing it down), symbolizes Benjamin’s mundane craving for G-d and his ability to excite others about grabbing Divinity wherever and whenever it can be found.

The Pentateuch contains descriptions of 10 dreams. By Divine Providence, all 10 appear in the weekly Torah portions read during the month of Kislev.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST CLUB & LEARN-IN WITH THE RABBI

At our first meeting of the New Year on October 27th, Rabbi Daniel focused on the creation of Adam and Eve, and the influence of the snake on their lives and the future of mankind.

On November 9th, we learned about Abraham, spiritual forefather of Jews, Christians and Muslims, and the first Monotheist. At age 75, he was given the name Abraham by G-d and was commanded to leave his family and homeland.

Abraham was a nomad, always uncertain and questioning. He needed G-d, just as G-d needed him to procreate and form a great nation.

Keep learning with us on Sunday mornings.

Elaine Spodick

FOCUS ON SISTERHOOD

“Z'MAN L'HAMOCH.....A SEASON TO REDEDICATE

Once again we are approaching the season of rededication. It is implicit in the calendar and the time of the year; lest we forget the true meaning - the very name Chanukah means rededication. As we light a new candle each night, beginning Sunday evening, Kislev 24 (December 22nd), let us rededicate ourselves and teach our children, grand and great grandchildren the meaning of dedication - let us relearn and teach all in the warm glow of the candles, the story and the meaning of the greatness which happened many years ago. Let us again remember how the Maccabees reaped more than material rewards. Let us not be caught up in the frenzy of shopping, of gift wrapping, etc. lest we forget the true meaning of the little cruse of oil. But do let us all play with the dreidel and remember - “Nes Gadol Hayah Sham.”

Don't forget to patronize our Gift Shop for your Chanukah and holy day needs. We have a lovely selection of menorahs, candles and other Judaica gifts. Call us and make an appointment and we'll help you!

Monday, December 23 will be our Sisterhood Chanukah meeting with latkes, applesauce and sufganiyot. But besides feeding our physical body with celebratory foods, Sisterhood ladies always strive to expand their horizons of knowledge and especially Jewish learning. Do you remember that around Sukkot time we studied a section from the Divrey Hochmah - words of learning - namely Pirkey Imahot - the modern female guests in the Sukkah and their words of wisdom. We didn't finish that but perhaps we shall return to it next sukkot. At our meeting we shall study a segment from Derekh Eretz called RESPECT. When a person appears before the Throne of Judgement, the first question asked is not, “Have you believed in G-d?”, “Have you performed ritual acts?”, but “Have you dealt honorably, faithfully in all your dealings with your fellow human beings?” How we deal with one another, whether through action or language, is a reflection of our commitment to derekh erez - respect. There are sections from Emma Lazarus, Abram Joshua Heschel, Dr. Jerome Gropman, Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, the Babylonian Talmud, etc. Each one will have questions that will lead us to riveting and energizing discussions and perhaps even some controversy. Some of the topics are Respect and Self Help, the Bride Beautiful, Respect: Eye to Eye, etc. Do come to this wonderful meeting.

Please do not forget our important ongoing campaign for Torah Fund. Our beautiful Benefactor's pin elaborates the word Chesed - kindness and loving kindness. More next month - including a date for our Torah Fund event. In the meantime please make your pledge for the Chesed pin ($180 and up) and receive the pin as our gift to you. Some of you are already wearing it - thank you.

A very speedy and complete recovery to Agnes Posner, Lee Lobel-Zwang and to all of you who are ailing or are afflicted by the winter doldrums.

Have a wonderful and very meaningful Chanukah.

BEREISHIT VAYETZE

Jacob has a dream with angels going up and down a ladder from earth to heaven. G-d appears before Jacob, renewing the covenant that G-d had made with Abraham.

Jacob sees Rachel, Laban's daughter, tending to sheep and wishes to marry her. Laban tricks Jacob into marrying his eldest daughter Leah after seven years of labor.

In exchange for another seven years of work, Jacob is allowed to marry Rachel. Jacob has many sons with Leah, but Rachel is unable to conceive. Finally, G-d blesses Rachel, and she has a son whom she names Joseph.
