FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

TEVET

Tevet is the 10th month on the Jewish calendar, counting from Nisan. Its name, which is mentioned in the book of Esther, was acquired in Babylonia and shares a root with the Hebrew word tov, meaning “good.”

This month begins with the last days of Chanukah. By internalizing the message of the ever-increasing lights of the menorah - reminding us of the power of good over evil - we are able to reveal the good that is hidden in our lives and in the world around us.

The 10th of Tevet is a fast day, commemorating the start of the siege of Jerusalem in the year 3336 (425 BCE), which led to the destruction of the first Beit Hamikdash (Holy Temple) two and a half years later on the ninth of Av.

On a fast day, the Divine attribute of mercy is able to be drawn down into this world. By fasting over the destruction of the Temple, one “sweetens” G-d’s anger with Israel, the cause of the destruction. Our sages explain, “Every generation for which the Temple is not rebuilt, is as though the Temple was destroyed for that generation.” As such, a fast day is not really a sad day, but an opportune day. It’s a day when we are empowered to fix the cause of that first destruction, so that our long exile will end, and we will find ourselves living in Messianic times. May that be very soon.

Holidays in Tevet

25 Kislev – 2 Tevet – Hanukkah (or 3 Tevet if Kislev is short)

10 Tevet – Tenth of Tevet (Asara beTevet), a fast day

Tevet in Jewish History

- 1 Tevet (circa 479 BCE) – Esther was taken to King Achashverosh's palace, leading to her becoming queen (Book of Esther 2:16-17).
- 10 Tevet (588 BCE) – Nebuchadnezzar II's armies besiege Jerusalem; now commemorated as a fast day.
- 10 Tevet (479 BCE) – Esther appears before Achashverosh for the first time and is chosen by him to be the queen.
- 17 Tevet (1728) – Shearith Israel, the first New York synagogue, erects its first building in Lower Manhattan.
- 22 Tevet (1496) – Expulsion of Jews from Portugal, four years after the expulsion from Spain.
- 24 Tevet (3rd century BCE) – Jewish elders procure the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Greek (Septuagint) for Ptolemy II Philadelphus.

SHEVAT

The month of Shevat comes upon us at the peak of winter. All the leaves have fallen from the trees, the colorful flowers have withered, and everything seems dead and frozen. At this time we need renewal more than ever.

Shevat is the time that the rainwater of the winter months begins to ascend in the veins of the tree, bringing it new life. The month of Shevat is not only the month of nourishing rain for the land, but also the time for the spiritual rain of the Torah which “is a Tree of Life to those who hold on to her.”

When most of this year’s rain has fallen, and we have become purified with the waters of Aquarius, we are ready to start over, to learn from our previous mistakes and grow like the trees, allowing our roots to drink the sweet spiritual nourishment of Torah.

The month of Shevat is referred to as the “New Year for the study of Torah.” Our new understandings in Torah are the fruits we produce. The fruits we eat on Tu B’Shevat correspond to partaking of and integrating the sweet fruits of Torah wisdom.

On the first of Shevat, Moshe started to review the Torah, to prepare the Israelites for entering the Land of Israel. Moshe, our teacher, explained most of the Divine Commandments to the generation who was on its way to the Land of Israel. He infused the mitzvot with renewed meaning, and gave them new mitzvot too. This renewal of the Torah during the month of Shevat sparks us to experience the excitement and newness of the Divine Torah. Even if we have already learned a certain chapter several times, we must never become complacent and lose the enthusiasm of youth, but feel as if we ourselves stood on Mount Sinai, and G-d told it to us for the first time today.

FOCUS ON SISTERHOOD

“Thou shall love thy neighbor as thyself.” (Leviticus)

“Have we not one Father?” “Has not one G-d created us?” (Malakhi)

“Since all human beings are traced back to one person, they must necessarily be brothers.” (Rabbi Ben Azzai)

“Am I my brother’s keeper?” (Bereshit)

“Whatever is hateful unto thee, do it not unto thy fellow man.” (Rabbi Hillel)

These passages come to mind as we begin to celebrate Sisterhood and Brotherhood in January and February. The teachings of Judaism remind and instruct us with these precepts. However, often in these turbulent days, mankind and the world seem to ignore these teachings. Please allow these and other teachings of our sages to help us grapple with all the horrific dangers confronting us today - let them and the teachings we find in the Talmud as well as in our other holy writings, give us some explanations, understanding, and a little peace of mind. Now let us look forward to celebrating, observing or commemorating the following happenings: Women’s League Shabbat on January 18, 2020; Martin Luther King Jr. Day on Monday, January 20, 2020; Rosh Chodesh Shevat on Monday, January 27, 2020; then on February 10th we shall celebrate Tu B’Shevat - the birthday of the trees; Monday, February 17th is Presidents’ Day. Then Rosh Chodesh Adar is February 25/26 - and we begin to plan our Purim costumes and hamantashen recipes.

We’ve left out two dates - February 12th and February 22nd, and we are not going to tell you what they commemorate, but your correct answer will be part of the requirement for your admission to our Paid Up Membership ‘Petit’ Luncheon & Trivia Quiz on Sunday, January 26th at 2:00 P.M. The main cost of admission is that you have paid your dues of $25.00 and you know that you will reap many benefits from this investment. There is nothing else like Sisterhood in the Rego Park Jewish Center, and we have much to offer you. Sisterhood is a state of mind. It is happiness, a glow from within that you are needed, that you will be fulfilled, it is a happening. It is a way of life and it is education, it is ideals and many faced purposes. Be an integral part of the RPJC Sisterhood so that you can continue to reap all of these benefits and dividends.

Please, be a working part of our Sisterhood - don’t wait for us to entertain you. Of course we shall continue to do our best - but we need you to work with us, to plan, to investigate, to search for new ideas which will fulfill your needs and requirements. For instance, do you want to have “Oy Vay Bingo” again? Do you want to go to the “Heritage Museum or on another trip? Be a part of our planning group - we need your expertise - we need you to commit yourself.

February, weather permitting, we plan to have our game and “schmooze” afternoon. To be announced.

We have not forgotten, but up to now, we at Sisterhood have not fulfilled our obligation or commitment of Chesed - loving kindness - for our Torah Fund campaign. This is the most important obligation that we have for our future to train rabbis, cantors, teachers and committed lay leaders. Shortly, we shall advise you of our honoree, the Woman of Achievement, and the date of our Brunch.

Shalom V’L’Hitraot and a safe, healthy and good secular New Year.

SUNDAY BREAKFAST CLUB & LEARN-IN WITH THE RABBI

After several weather cancelations, it was great to meet on December 8th for breakfast and a lively discussion. Rabbi Daniel explained to us the meaning of "Birkat Hamazon," the blessings said after meals. In these blessings (four in number) we thank G-d for the food provided, for the land (Eretz Yisroel), for Jerusalem and for G-d's goodness.

We learned that it is customary to remove all knives (considered weapons of war) from the table before commencing prayer. The table is considered an altar of peace. The word "Shalom" is the last and primary word in our blessings and prayers.

We look forward to seeing you on future Sundays.

Elaine Spodick

TIME TO STUDY TORAH & MUSSAR

SATURDAY, JANUARY 18TH at 12:30 P.M.

PARASHAT SHEMOT - 1.1 - 6.1

The children of Israel multiply in Egypt. Threatened by their growing numbers, Pharaoh enslaves them and orders the Hebrew midwives, Shifrah and Puah, to kill all male babies at birth. When they do not comply, he commands his people to cast the Hebrew babies into the Nile.

A child is born to Yocheved, the daughter of Levi, and her husband, Amram, and placed in a basket on the river while the baby's sister Miriam stands watch from afar. Pharaoh's daughter discovers the boy, raises him as her son, and names him Moses.

As a young man, Moses leaves the palace and discovers the hardship of his brethren. He sees an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, and kills the Egyptian. The next day he sees two Jews fighting; when he admonishes them, they reveal his deed of the previous day, and Moses is forced to flee to Midian. There he rescues Jethro's daughters, marries one of them (Tziporah), and becomes a shepherd of his father-in-law's flocks.

G-d appears to Moses in a burning bush at the foot of Mount Sinai and instructs him to go to Pharaoh and demand: "Let My people go, so that they may serve Me." Moses' brother Aaron is appointed to serve as his spokesman. In Egypt, Moses and Aaron assemble the elders of Israel to tell them that the time of their redemption has come. The people believe, but Pharaoh refuses to let them go, and even intensifies the suffering of Israel.

Moses returns to G-d to protest: "Why have You done evil to this people?" G-d promises that the redemption is close at hand.

TIME TO STUDY TORAH & MUSSAR

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8TH
at 12:30 P.M.

PARASHAT BESHALACH - 13.17 - 17.16

Soon after allowing the children of Israel to depart from Egypt, Pharaoh chases after them to force their return, and the Israelites find themselves trapped between Pharaoh's armies and the sea. G-d tells Moses to raise his staff over the water; the sea splits to allow the Israelites to pass through, and then closes over the pursuing Egyptians. Moses and the children of Israel sing a song of praise and gratitude to G-d.

In the desert the people suffer thirst and hunger, and repeatedly complain to Moses and Aaron. G-d miraculously sweetens the bitter waters of Marah, and later has Moses bring forth water from a rock by striking it with his staff. He causes manna to rain down from the heavens before dawn each morning and quails to appear in the Israelite camp each evening.

The children of Israel are instructed to gather a double portion of manna on Friday, as none will descend on Shabbat, the divinely decreed day of rest. Some disobey and go to gather manna on the seventh day, but find nothing. Aaron preserves a small quantity of manna in a jar, as a testimony for future generations.

In Rephidim, the people are attacked by the Amalekites, who are defeated by Moses' prayers and an army raised by Joshua.
