SPONSOR OR CO-SPONSOR A KIDDUSH

Consider sponsoring or co-sponsoring a Shabbat kiddush! This is a wonderful opportunity to mark the observance of important events such as a yahrzeit or a simcha. Note: It does not have to be one person only. It could be two or three people getting together to sponsor a kiddush. The cost is very reasonable and we provide enough food for everyone to enjoy. But most importantly, we get together, we take the time to create new friendships and to enjoy existing ones.

Please contact the Center office for more information.

REMEMBER

“SPRING AHEAD”
MARCH 10, 2019

The Rego Park Jewish Center Bulletin is published 9 times/year (Sept. - June)

FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

Adar is the sixth month of the civil year and the twelfth month of the ecclesiastical year on the Hebrew calendar, roughly corresponding to the month of March in the Gregorian calendar. It is a winter month of 29 days. The Month of Adar in the Holy Scriptures comprises in Esther 09, 21.

In leap years, it is preceded by a 30-day intercalary month named Adar Aleph (Hebrew: אָדָר א', Aleph being the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, also known as "Adar Rishon" (First Adar) or "Adar I") and it is then itself called Adar Bet (Hebrew: אָדָר ב', Bet being the second letter of the Hebrew Alphabet, also known as "Adar Sheni" (Second Adar) or "Adar II"). Occasionally instead of Adar I and Adar II, "Adar" and "Ve'Adar" are used (Ve means 'and' thus: And Adar). Adar I and II occur during February – March on the Gregorian calendar.

Based on a line in the Mishnah declaring that Purim must be celebrated in Adar II in a leap year (Megillah 1:4), Adar I is considered the "extra" month. As a result, someone born in Adar during a non leap year would celebrate his birthday in Adar II during a leap year. However, someone born during either Adar in a leap year will celebrate his birthday during Adar in a non-leap year, except that someone born on 30 Adar I will celebrate his birthday on 1 Nisan in a non-leap year because Adar in a non-leap year has only 29 days.

During the Second Temple period, there was a Jewish custom to make a public proclamation on the first day of the lunar month Adar, reminding the people that they are to prepare their annual monetary offering to the Temple treasury, known as the half-Shekel.

HOLIDAYS

13 Adar (II in leap years) – Fast of Esther – on 11 Adar when the 13th falls on Shabbat – (Fast Day)

14 Adar (II in leap years) – Purim

14 Adar I (does not exist in non-leap years – Purim Katan

15 Adar (II in leap years) – Shushan Purim – celebration of Purim in walled cities existing during the time of Joshua

17 Adar (II in leap years) – Yom Adar celebration feast

IN JEWISH HISTORY

- 1 Adar (circa 1313 BCE) – Plague of Darkness, the ninth plague upon the Egyptians (Exodus 10:23). This started on the 1st of Adar, six weeks before the Exodus.
- 2 Adar (598 BCE) – Jerusalem falls to Nebuchadnezzar and Jeconiah is captured.
- 3 Adar (515 BCE) – Second Temple completed
- 7 Adar (1393 BCE) – Birth of Moses
- 7 Adar (1273 BCE) – Death of Moses
- 9 Adar (1st century BCE) – Academic dissension between Beit Hillel and Beit Shammai, erupted into a violent and destructive conflict over a vote on 18 legal matters leading to the death of 3,000 students. The day was later declared a fast day by the Shulchan Aruch, however, it was never observed as such.
- 13 Adar (474 BCE) – War between Jews and their enemies in Persia (Book of Esther, chapter 9).
- 13 Adar (161 BCE) – Yom Nicanor – The Maccabees defeated Syrian general Nicanor, in a battle fought four years after the Maccabees' liberation of the Holy Land and the miracle of Hanukkah.
- 14 Adar (474 BCE) – Purim victory celebrated in the Persian Empire
- 15 Adar (474 BCE) – Purim Victory Celebrated in Shushan

- 15 Adar (1st century CE) – Jerusalem Gate Day – King Agrippa I (circa 21 CE) began construction of a gate for the wall of Jerusalem; the day used to be celebrated as a holiday.
- 17 Adar (522 BCE) – Yom Adar – the day the Jewish people left Persia following the Purim story
- 20 Adar (1st century BCE) – Choni the Circle Maker prays for rain (Talmud, Taanit 23a)
- 23 Adar (1312 BCE) – Mishkan assembled for the first time; "Seven Days of Training" begin.
- 25 Adar (561 BCE) – Death of Nebuchadnezzar (Jeremiah 52:31).
- 25 Adar (1761) – Death of Rabbi Abraham Gershon of Kitov the brother-in-law and leading foe-turned-disciple of the Baal Shem Tov.
- 27 Adar (561 BCE) – Death of Zedekiah in Babylonian captivity. Meroduch, Nebuchadnezzar's son and successor, freed him (and his nephew Jeconiah) on the 27th of Adar, but Zedekiah died that same day.

Adar Rishon (or Adar Aleph) occurs 7 times every 19 years.

ראש חודש אדר ב' / Rosh Chodesh Adar II

Beginning of new Hebrew month of Adar II (on leap years). Adar II (sometimes "Adar Bet" or "Adar Sheni") is the 13th month of the Hebrew year, occurring only on leap years. Corresponds to February or March on the Gregorian calendar.

Rosh Chodesh Adar II begins at sundown on Wed, 06 March 2019.

Pesach celebrates the formation of the Jewish nation. A group of slaves who were far removed from G-d had to be taught that G-d is the Master of the Universe. Maimonides begins his monumental code of Jewish law declaring that, “the foundation of foundations and pillar of wisdom is to know that there is a G-d”, Who is the source and cause of all of existence. Pesach is the holiday on which we celebrate G-d’s role in history.

A thousand years later, we are able to recognize G-d even when He is hidden. Purim, in effect, represents the maturation of the Jewish people. No miracles are needed, as we understand that all that transpires is the will of G-d. Our calendar symbolically reflects this growth process. At the beginning of the year, in Nisan, we are in essence little children, who have difficulty understanding abstract concepts and need to see the direct power of G-d to be impressed. By the end of the year, in Adar, we have grown into adults, with a more sophisticated approach to our Master. Purim and Pesach cannot be separated; the link between open and hidden miracles must be emphasized.

Our Sages tell us that the story of Esther marks the end of the period of miracles. Once one understands that all of existence is a miracle, that Esther was the agent of G-d in redeeming the Jewish people, no more miracles are necessary.

We can now begin to understand why our Sages place such emphasis on Purim, equating it in importance to that of Yom Kippur. They saw it as a day of rededication to Torah, (recall the Torah we have today was given on Yom Kippur) and suggested that, while the books of the Neviim and Ketuvim will someday be abrogated, the book of Esther will never be annulled from the canon.

While we are full of joy as we recount the miracles of Pesach, a higher form of joy is to be found in the miracles of Purim. MiShenichnas Adar Marbim BeSimcha, when Adar enters we increase our joy. May we merit the ultimate joy of the final redemption. Shabbat Shalom!

Rabbi Romiel Daniel

FOCUS ON SISTERHOOD

It is preferable to spend more on gifts to the poor than on the Purim Seudah (meal) or on gifts to friends. For no joy is greater than the joy of gladdening the hearts of the poor, the widows, orphans or strangers.

Maimonides, Hilkhoh, Megillah {Laws of the Megillah}

Sunday morning, March 17th will be a glorious day. We hope that the sun will be shining inside the Rego Park Jewish Center and finally it is the long awaited morning of our Torah Brunch in honor of Susan Goldschmidt, our Woman of Achievement. and she really is an achiever in every sense of the word. After she has overcome some health issues Susan is now ready to proudly accept all the accolades we want to bestow on her. At the same time, we also will celebrate and honor our Jewels of learning of the Conservative movement - the Jewish Theological Seminary, The Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, the Schechter School in Jerusalem, the Seminario in Argentina and the newest jewel – the seminary in Frankfurt, Germany. Once again, Sisterhood as well as the congregation and friends, will demonstrate by our support the important role that the arms of the Seminary play in our lives. It is critical that we sustain these important institutions of higher learning – this is where we educate our future rabbis, cantors, teachers and lay people for the education of our children, grandchildren and future generations. Without our support there is no Atid (Future) - and if this happens then there will no future for us or for the generations that will come after us, or for the Conservative movement. Through our involvement with synagogue, the community and mankind, Susan and we shall use Atid – the future – like true Sabras – Yesh Atid – there is a future. So let us fulfill our obligations to the Conservative Movement and show our dedication to our honoree, Susan Goldschmidt by attending our splendid Torah Brunch on Sunday morning March 17th, 2019. Make it truly the occasion of a wonderful ATID.

Earlier that week, on Monday, March 11th, we shall have the pleasure of telling you how Purim is celebrated all over the world. The more than 100 episodes are taken from a book called “Esther’s Legacy” – we won’t discuss all of them but some of the most unusual ones. Then we shall let you choose some that arouse your curiosity and then also tell us about your own most favorite and cherished Purim memories. Bring a dairy sandwich/yogurt and of course we shall serve hamantaschen and coffee.

We wish Refuah Schleimah and speedy and complete recoveries to Ruthe Unger, Florence Cohen, Rachel Kacenenbogen and Florence Most. Please, Ladies, please get well and come back to RPJC - we need each of you.

Now remember it’s Adar, it’s Purim, be happy and don’t forget Shelach Mones for the needy, for the orphans, the house bound, and then imbibe so much that you won’t be able to tell the difference between Mordechai and Haman.

Happy Purim V’L’Hitraot. V’Shalom

TU B'SHEVAT LUNCHEON

We fondly remember Tu B'Shevat in cold January, festively celebrating the birthday of the trees with a warm delicious luncheon and JNF speaker. Sheryl Buchholtz, an executive volunteer at Jewish National Fund, spoke of "The Empowering the Negev communities." She displayed a large map noting the desert, labeling this area the future of the Jewish state. They will be leading in agriculture, research and development, cyber security, science and engineering. Sheryl exhibited pictures of the eight mayors of middle ages, dealing with their town's developments such as the city of Be'ersheva, now an outstanding metropolis thanks to Mayor Ruvik Danilovich.

Rabbi Romiel Daniel also spoke of the historic, cultural and social elements of Tu B'Shevat. - the trees - fruits of Israel to eat and enjoy!

We thank Robin Basdeo for setting our Gold Room so beautifully and for heating and serving the chicken luncheon from Mauzone. Thirty two men and women came and ended it all with the singing of Hatikvah and God Bless America.

PERSONALS

Ira Schnitzler wants us to know why he still comes back to our Rego Park Jewish Center. "It's for the people, they respect me", he said. When he moved from his parents' home in Bayside to Rego Park, he was looking for a shul he could identify with and found our Center. His Jewish education includes a yeshiva for seven years, the Hebrew Academy of Northern Queens for five years and the Hebrew Academy West for two years. At his Bar Mitzvah he chanted everything! At this time he became critically ill (medically affecting his walking). "When I recovered I found a wife, married and moved to Manhattan, in Gramercy Park, but could not find a synagogue to suit me. Therefore, having been out of Rego Park almost twenty years, as long as I can shlep, I will go back to the Rego Park Jewish Center!

TIME TO STUDY TORAH

SATURDAY, MARCH 16th

at 12:30 P.M.

PARASHAT VAYIKRA 1.1 - 5.26

We enter the third book of Moses, Leviticus.

"How to prepare the people's offering to bring to the priests: choice animals or turtle doves or fine flour. The priests were to burn them on the altar. These offerings to be made as offerings of well-being, purification and atonement - the fragrant smoke would ascend to G-d - the remainder of the meal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons."

HAFTARAT ISAIAH 43.21 - 44.23

"The people I formed for Myself so they may declare My praise. But you have not worshipped Me, O Jacob. You have not brought one of your offerings - frankincense, money, meal offerings, instead you burdened Me with your sins, your iniquities. It is I, for My own sake - wipe your transgressions and remember your sins. Help me remember! Let us join in argument - tell your version - your earliest ancestor sinned - transgressed against Me. So I profaned the holy princes; I abandoned Jacob to proscription and Israel to mockery."

SUNDAY BREAKFAST CLUB & LEARN-IN WITH THE RABBI

Breakfasts in 2019 have focused on exciting new topics of discussion:

1. An analysis of prayer: dictionary defined as communication with a deity. Of the five types of prayer, giving thanks, not just asking for things, is most important.
2. What is manna? Its role as sustenance to the Israelites. The importance of spiritual manna, the feeding of our children through religious education in the home.
3. Secrets for walking with G-d every day. He will help us soar like an eagle without tiring, but we must do good, have faith, be satisfied and pray.
4. Defining the Torah - a moral guide for the people. Its emergence from verbal to written form over centuries, commentaries and interpretations resulting in the Talmud.

Join us on coming Sundays for a deeper insight into Judaism, good food and friendship.
