DAILY MINYAN URGENT REQUEST

The morning and afternoon minyan are fragile and exist without a strong safety net of men to make a minyan if some of our regulars do not come. If you are observing the yahrzeit of a loved one and it falls on a day when we do not have a minyan you would be upset and rightly so. We need you not only when you are observing yahrzeit, but a few days each month to insure that someone else will be able to say kaddish. A few days each month is not too much to ask. By doing a mitzvah, you will be rewarded with a bigger mitzvah.

Please contact the Rabbi or the Center office with your name and phone number, and when and how often & what time (morning/afternoon?) you can commit.

FROM THE RABBI'S DESK

Month of Elul and Selichot

אֵלוֹל
סְלִיחוֹת

Significance: Time of reflection leading up to Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur

Customs: Blowing the shofar (ram's horn); asking people for forgiveness; reciting penitential prayers.

The month of Elul is a time of repentance in preparation for the High Holidays of Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Tradition teaches that the month of Elul is a particularly propitious time for repentance. This mood of repentance builds through the month of Elul to the period of Selichot, to Rosh Hashanah, and finally to Yom Kippur.

The name of the month (spelled Alef-Lamed-Vav-Lamed) is said to be an acronym of "Ani l'dodi v'dodi li," "I am my Beloved's and my Beloved is mine," a quote from Song of Songs 6:3, where the Beloved is G-d and the "I" is the Jewish people. In Aramaic (the vernacular of the Jewish people at the time that the month names were adopted), the word "Elul" means "search," which is appropriate, because this is a time of year when we search our hearts.

According to tradition, the month of Elul is the time that Moses spent on Mount Sinai preparing the second set of tablets after the incident of the golden calf (Ex. 32; 34:27-28). He ascended on Rosh Chodesh Elul and descended on the 10th of Tishri, at the end of Yom Kippur, when repentance was complete. Other sources say that Elul is the beginning of a period of 40 days that Moses prayed for G-d to forgive the people after the Golden Calf incident, after which the commandment to prepare the second set of tablets was given.

Customs of Elul

During the month of Elul, from the second day of Elul to the 28th day, the shofar (a hollowed out ram's horn) is blown after morning services every weekday. The shofar is not blown on Shabbat. It is also not blown on the day before Rosh Hashanah to make a clear distinction between the rabbinical role of blowing the shofar in Elul and the biblical mitzvah to blow the shofar on Rosh Hashanah. Four blasts are blown; tekiah, shevarim-teruah, tekiah. Rambam explained the custom of blowing shofar as a wake-up call to sleepers, designed to rouse us from our complacency. It is a call to repentance. The blast of the shofar is a very piercing sound when done properly.

Elul is also a time to begin the process of asking forgiveness for wrongs done to other people. According to Jewish tradition, G-d cannot forgive us for sins committed against another person until we have first obtained forgiveness from the person we have wronged. This is not as easy a task as you might think, if you have never done it. This process of seeking forgiveness continues through the Days of Awe.

Many people visit cemeteries at this time, because the awe-inspiring nature of this time makes us think about life and death and our own mortality. In addition, many people use this time to check their mezuzot and tefillin for defects that might render them invalid.

Selichot

As the month of Elul draws to a close, the mood of repentance becomes more urgent. Prayers for forgiveness called selichot are added to the daily cycle of religious services. Selichot are recited in the early morning, before normal daily shacharit service. They add about 45 minutes to the regular daily service.

Selichot are recited from the Sunday before Rosh Hashanah until Yom Kippur. If Rosh Hashanah begins on a Monday or Tuesday, selichot begins on the Sunday of the week before Rosh Hashanah, to make sure that there are at least 3 days of Selichot. The first selichot service of the holiday season is usually a large community service, held around midnight on Motzai Shabbat (the night after the sabbath ends; that is, after nightfall on Saturday). The entire community, including men, women and older children, attend the service, and the rabbi gives a sermon. The remaining selichot services are normally only attended by those who ordinarily attend daily shacharit services in synagogue.

A fundamental part of the selichot service is the repeated recitation of the “Thirteen Attributes,” a list of G-d’s thirteen attributes of mercy that were revealed to Moses after the sin of the golden calf (Ex 34:6-7); Ha-shem [1], Ha-shem [2], G-d [3], merciful [4], and gracious [5], long suffering [6], abundant in goodness [7] and truth [8], keeping mercy unto the thousandth generation [9], forgiving iniquity [10] and transgression [11] and sin [12], who cleanses [13]. Why is “Ha-shem” listed twice as an attribute? And why are three of these “attributes” Names of G-d? Different names of G-d connote different characteristics of G-d. The four-letter Name of G-d (rendered here as “Ha-shem”) is the Name used when G-d is exhibiting characteristics of mercy, and the Talmud explains that this dual usage indicates that G-d is merciful before a person sins, but is also merciful after a person sins. The third attribute is a different Name of G-d that is used when G-d acts in His capacity as the almighty ruler of nature and the universe.

The first Selichot service will be held around midnight on the following day of the secular calendar:

Jewish Year 5777: midnight September 16/17, 2017

Elul in Jewish history

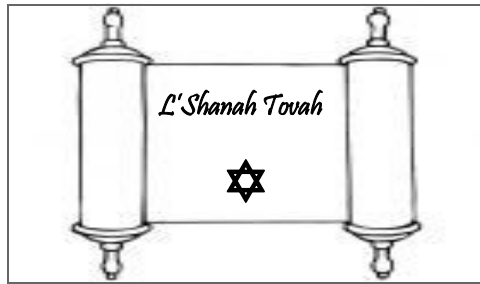

- 1 Elul - Moses ascends Sinai for 3rd 40 days (1313 BCE)
- 1 Elul - The Prophet Haggai commands that the rebuilding of the Second Temple continue (520 BCE)
- 2 Elul - Shulchan Aruch published (1555)
- 5 Elul - Ezekiel the prophet has a prophecy of the destruction of the first temple
- 10 Elul - Noah dispatches raven (2105 BCE)
- 12 Elul - Birth of Nachmanides (1294)
- 13 Elul - Death of Ben Ish Chai (1909)
- 17 Elul - Noah dispatches dove (2105 BCE)
- 18 Elul - Death of Maharal (1609)

- 24 Elul - Death of Chafetz Chaim (1933)
- 25 Elul - The 1st day of Creation (3761 BCE)
- 25 Elul - Jerusalem Walls Rebuilt (335 BCE)

Our Breakfast Club Learn In members have studied all these Talmudic sages the last season.

Elul is the month that begins back to back and ends face to face. At the beginning of the month we are unaware of the reality that “I am to my beloved and my beloved is to me.” However, by working on ourselves during this month, by being willing to turn around and make changes, we come to realize that our Creator has never had His back turned. He has always been facing us, and just waiting for us to turn around. And once we do, we are then like two lameds that are face to face, which form the Jewish heart and which are the essence of the month of Elul.

May we be blessed with the ability to tap into the powers of the month of Elul, to recognize and reveal our ability to both learn and teach, and through that, to come face to face with ourselves, with our loved ones and with our Creator, as we are taught through the Jewish heart.

FOCUS ON SISTERHOOD

Our enemies say..... “Come let us cut them off from nationhood, let Israel’s name be remembered no more. “Adonoy, let them be ashamed and terrified forever, and let them be humiliated and perish forever.....Fill their faces with shame, then they will seek your name, Adonoy....” Psalm 83

These powerful words from the Psalmist Asaph are a fervent prayer for G-d to exterminate the nations who plot destruction of our beloved Israel. As we stand by helplessly, there is little that we can or should do except to give financial as well as moral support and make the saying of Tehillim (Psalms) a part of our daily routine.

“Ashray Ha’am Yod’ei Truah.....Happy is the people that know the joyful shout....Lishmo’ah Kol Shofar....To listen to the sounds of the shofar.”
Psalm 89

As the High Holy Days approach, we stop to reflect on the year that has passed, and we look forward with hope as we prepare to usher in a new year. We greet each other with the eternal wishes.... “Shana Tova, a gut yar,” and with the fervent hope that with goodness, mitzvot, tzedacha, and through our reverence of the Lord, we shall be inscribed in the Book of Life for a year of happiness and fulfillment. Sisterhood president, officers and board members have been planning for another successful & banner year. With this in mind we invite you to join us at our first Sisterhood meeting of the season on Monday, September 25th at 12:15 P.M. In the spirit of the upcoming Yamim Nora'im (Days of Awe), we ask you to join us on a spiritual journey as well as an opportunity for an exchange of personal tools of prayer and devotion. We hope that each of you will want to share your own Selihot with us and thus each of us, by helping and sharing, will get an additional and perhaps even new perspective of our devotion and observance of all the important, as well as private nuance of this most important period in our existence. Bring a dairy sandwich or yogurt and we shall serve coffee and cake.

As we read this Bulletin we are pleased that you have responded to our High Holiday Greeting

Appeal and we thank Chairperson Shirley Decker for her work and devotion. Todah Rabbah and Yeyashayr Ko'ah.

Our October meeting will be “Lunch in the Sukkah” on October 9th - the third day of Chol Hamoed. And on Shabbat, October 7th, we shall have the community “Learn In” in the Sukkah. Watch the mail.

You will see some of us wearing our new “Ma Tov” Torah Fund pin - how beautiful and appropriate. We praise G-d as we enter the synagogue and we will make Ma Tov an integral and important part of our daily lives. Please contact us for all the details about Ma Tov.

As we approach 5778, the Days of Awe, we say mazal tov to all of you who have had simchas. We express our wishes for good health and refuah scheleimah to those of you who are ailing. Above all we wish good health as well as the fortitude for good counsel and wise decisions to our Rabbi and Rebbetzin as well as to the leadership of this congregation.

Let us go forward in this new year from strength. “Kesiva Vehasima Tova” - may all of you be blessed with peace, good health and happiness.

RABBA DR. CARMELLA ABRAHAM KUBERSKY

Topic

THIRTEEN ATTRIBUTES OF HASHEM

It is with great pleasure and honor that we welcome one of the nineteen Orthodox women Rabbas, ordained through Yeshivat Maharat.

Rabba Dr. Carmella Abraham Kubersky co-founded and serves as Gaba'it of the Women's Tefillah of the Hebrew Institute of White Plains.

She has actively fought racism within and outside our community. She has engaged in interfaith dialogue; worked closely with the LGBTQ community, adolescents and their families; read Megillah in jail for Jewish prisoners.

She is committed to cherish the Jewish people as they are, where they are, motivated to keeping the family together.

Dr. Carmella earned her Medical Degree from Mount Sinai School of Medicine. Currently, she works as a Medical Director of a pharmaceutical company.

Dr. Carmella was raised by her parents Lavina, of blessed memory and Dr. George Abraham in Sephardic Indian Jewish traditions. Dr. Carmella is married to Dr. Steven Kubersky who specializes in Internal medicine with a private practice at Westchester Medical Center. They encourage and support each other in their endeavors. They have two daughters and a son and in-laws who are very appreciative and proud of their family.

We are blessed to have esteemed Dr. Carmella Abraham Kubersky, the first Bene Israel Woman Rabba among us to share with us some of her learning and experience.

Please R.S.V.P. if you plan to attend - call the Center office at 718-459-1000

HIGHLIGHTS & PERSONALS

We remember the superb excellence of Aviva Simcha Daniel's chanting of her Bat Mitzvah service - the Haftarat in Hebrew, then translating it into English. We thank the wonderful Daniel family for sharing this simcha with us!

We thank everyone who helped make the program planning into special events. The Passover seder was a joyous event, bringing 75 guests together - flavored with Rabbi Romiel and Noreen Daniel's B'nai Israel Indian Jews, dramatizing portions of the Hagaddah. It was a warm friendly seder experience. The monthly Parashat & Haftarat Club is very special, open to comments and questions. Thanks to Charles Lehat who brings the Haftarat to "life" with the words of the prophets, followed by Rabbi Romiel Daniel's outstanding parashat stories that can relate to our time. We thank the hosts for providing us with a "lite bite" before our Torah study. Thank you Ida & Arthur Schwartz, Carol Stoller and Stuart Hess, Mildred Pelton, Bernice Mandell, Charles Lehat, Martin Cantor, Rebecca Katz and Luba Marcus.

The Women in Judaism series has been meeting together with Hadassah - both groups are devoted to women's health, education and Zionism. Thank you to Women in Judaism's Cynthia Zalisky, lecturer and Noreen Daniel, chair and to Park Hills Chapter of Hadassah's president Florence Cohen and treasurer Shirley Decker.

Thank you to Leora Agron for teaching us the art of Japanese origami at our Expression in the Arts group. Thank you Pnina Lanxner for chairing the Knitting Circle, a warm friendly group, relaxing and making beautiful knitwear. A very special thank you to Rebecca Katz for her exquisite creations, designing posters and table settings for the Tu B'Shevat Luncheon and the celebration of Israel's 69th anniversary.

Also, many thanks to the following individuals: Lorraine Carroll, Francine Glickfeld, Bernice Mandell, Jack Siegel and grandsons. Thanks to Lynne Goldwasser for publicity and to Robin Basdeo and Alvin Saywack for Center services.

BOOK DISCUSSION GROUP

Trevor Noah, the author of Born a Crime is a comedian from South Africa. He is host of "The Daily Show with Trevor Noah." He is the successor to Jon Stewart who hosted the show from 1999 to 2015.

The author was born in South Africa to a white Swiss father and a black mother at a time when such a union was punishable by five years in prison. This explains the title of the book. Apartheid, the rigid policy of segregation for the nonwhite population, was drawing to a close, but the social policy involving the races which followed apartheid was also difficult for the light brown skinned Trevor. He did not fit in comfortably with either group. He lived with his mother and perhaps 14 others in crowded quarters.

Born a Crime is a story of a mixed race child of a single mother living in poverty with violence and abuse. It is equally a story of a son's deep affection and tribute to his remarkable mother. Their strong bond helped make him the successful man he is today.

This memoir was received favorably by major U.S. book reviewers and was named one of the best books of the year by The New York Times and other major publications.

We meet at the Center once a month on Wednesday from 3:00 to 4:30 P.M. We will be meeting to discuss Born a Crime on September 13th.

Please call me at 718-263-4973 if you want more information.

My best wishes to all for a Healthy and Happy New Year.

Dear Rabbi Daniel, Rebbetzin, fellow congregants and friends,

I'm humbled and grateful and I was so very touched by all the support that you have given to me in one of the most difficult periods of my life. You can't imagine how much your phone calls, cards, visits, donations and attention meant to me. Each was very special and very precious. Todah Rabah to all of you and may G-d give you strength to always be a source of comfort to others.

SPONSOR OR CO-SPONSOR A KIDDUSH

Consider sponsoring or co-sponsoring a Shabbat kiddush! This is a wonderful opportunity to mark the observance of important events such as a yahrzeit or a simcha. Note: It does not have to be one person only. It could be two or three people getting together to sponsor a kiddush. The cost is very reasonable and we provide enough food for everyone to enjoy. But most importantly, we get together, we take the time to create new friendships and to enjoy existing ones.

Please contact the Center office for more information.
